THE EVENING STAR. DOUBLE SHEET. WASHINGTON. $ATURDAY October 22, 1881. CROSBY S. NOYES..... Editor. The Evening Star has a regular, permanent bona fide daily circulation more than treble that of any other daily paper published in Washington, and equal to that of all the other daily papers here added together.

THE STAR office is connected with the Telephone Exchange. Advertisements, orders for the paper by mail and otherwise, news, or any information or business can be sent day or night, free of charge.

Another reason for the construction of cisterns for drinking water in Washington, which has already been advocated in the columns of THE STAR. pently delivered before the Kentucky Medical Society by a physician of high standing and large practice and observation in that state. According to this authority, epidemics of typhoid fever, which twenty years ago were very prevalent in that state, now rarely occur. The change was atsub-soil communication were the sources of drink; ing water, whereas cemented cisterns are now almost universally used. These cisterns are like sealed bottles into which the water pours drinking water the present immunity from epi- ming, and every Novelty of the Season. demics of typhoid is attributed. There can be no longer any doubt that to the use of impure drinking water should be charged not only a large proportion of typhoid diseases, but also those of a THIBET CLOTH, ARMURES, LADIES' CLOTH, majarial character. The theory that the latter | CHUDDA CLOTH, CAMEL'S HAIR and a full stock of are due to decaying vegetation and stagnant water | the best English CREPE and CREPE VEILS. is no longer held by the best authorities on the subject. Their prevalence where these conditions do not exist shows it to be fallacious.

Says the Boston Transcript: "Burglars in Hartford, night before last, broke in the skull of a servant girl, who woke and gave the alarm to the master of the house they had entered. And yet it is held unlawful to kill burglars on sight." But has should like to see a jury that would convict a householder, be it man or woman, for killing a burglar who had entered upon his or her premises, and was found engaged in robbing them. We venture to say it could not be done except by a jury composed of criminals.

Judging from the Indiana newspapers, there is a pretty decided and bitter difference of opinion among the republicans of that state over the proposed retirement of Mr. Typer from the Post Office department. This is foolish. The case would seem to be one in which both wings of the organi-Zation might be happy: one because Mr. Typer has been able to hold office so long; the other because he will hold it no longer. But some people never had any filosofy, Mr Medill says. 44>

Tammany has swallowed the head of the New York county democratic ticket, but it can't go the tail. It gives to the first nominee a hearty support, but kicks, with its old time vigor, against the remainder of the ticket. This is as near to harmony as the New York city democracy have yet attained.

The recent demand in Europe for confederate bonds at $2.50 and $3 per $1,000 has not yet been explained. Of course the purchasers expect to prefit somewhere. One thing is evident, The readiness with which the people of outh send forward these bonds for sale at a ardly above that of old paper, shows conclusively that they never expect them to be worth
